LUFWANYAMA TOWN COUNCIL CITIZEN ENGAGEMENT STRATEGY - 2025

With a Focus on Output Based Budgeting and Project Implementation Management

1. Introduction

Stakeholder engagement is key to developing and implementing programs, and projects which are responsive to the needs of the community. Lufwanyama Town Council has developed this Citizen Engagement Strategy to enable an effective platform for productive interaction between the Local Authority and its stakeholders. This document will guide and inform various stakeholders within and outside the District on the means of engagement in identifying and implementing development programs and projects in the District. This tool will also serve as a guide in bringing stakeholders on board during the budgeting process.

1.1 Background

Lufwanyama Town Council recognizes the importance of Stakeholder Engagement in promoting inclusive development and good governance. Stakeholder engagement provides a platform for stakeholders to participate in the development process. This includes identifying development needs, and interventions to address such. Thus, helping to design and implement programs and projects which are relevant to the communities in Lufwanyama. Stakeholder engagement also enhances interaction between the Local Authority and the community thereby promoting transparency and accountability in the utilization of public resources.

Additionally, stakeholder engagement is crucial in identifying the environmental, health, and social risks which may be associated with proposed development interventions. Therefore, it helps to mitigate risks and conflicts, and also improves project outcomes.

The development of this tool is also a fulfilment of Article 205(d) of the Constitution of Zambia which provides for public participation in the budget process; as well as the Access to Information Act No. 8 of 2024 which gives citizens, media, and civil society the right to access information by public authorities; and the National Decentralization Policy whose theme is 'Realizing Local Development through Citizen Participation.'"

Thus, it must be emphasized that the development of this plan is a means to achieve goals to empower the citizens, improve decision-making and foster trust between the Local Authority and its stakeholders.

1.2 Current Stakeholder Engagement Efforts by Lufwanyama

Town Council

Over the years, the Local Authority has utilized various means to bring stakeholders on board in shaping the development agenda of the District. Engagement meetings have been held with traditional and religious leaders, Government departments, community-based organizations, sub-district structures such as the Ward Development Committees, Community Welfare Assistance Committees, and Satellite Disaster Management Committees and the communities at large for issues pertaining to the development of the District.

Most of these meetings have been centered on raising awareness about government driven programs such as the Constituency Development Fund (CDF), Cash for Work, Community Sport, and enhancing the Local Authority's revenue mobilization and other programs within the Local Authority. Some stakeholders were also engaged during the formulation process of the Integrated Development Plan. The challenge with some of the previous engagements have been due poor attendance, hence compromising community representation.

The development of this Citizen Engagement Strategy will endeavor to address some of the challenges the Local Authority has been facing in actualizing meaningful stakeholder engagement. This plan has categorized stakeholders to be engaged in different development interventions and the means and timelines of engagement have been outlined. The plan has also taken a more inclusive approach to bring on board marginal groups in the District such as the people living with disabilities, women, and the youth. The plan has authorities; and the National Decentralization Policy whose theme is 'Realizing Local Development through Citizen Participation.'"

Thus, it must be emphasized that the development of this plan is a means to achieve goals to empower the citizens, improve decision-making and foster trust between the Local Authority and its stakeholders.

The plan has also taken a more inclusive approach to bring on board marginal groups in the District such as the people living with disabilities, women, and the youth. The plan has provided means of sharing information with the residents of Lufwanyama on the updates and decisions over the budget and project cycle processes.

2 Vision, Aim, and Objectives

This section highlights the Vision, Aim and objectives of the Citizen Engagement Strategy

2.1 Vision

To be a model Municipal Council in the provision of sustainable and quality services in Zambia by 2030.

2.2 Aim

- To effectively engage stakeholders and ensure their active participation in decision – making processes, ultimately contributing to the success and sustainable development interventions in Lufwanyama District.

2.3 Objectives

- Enhance stakeholder participation in project identification and prioritization of development interventions.
- Increase citizen involvement in budgetary and project decision-making processes.
- Improve transparency and accountability in budget and project implementation through citizen engagement,
- Strengthen public monitoring of budget and project execution.
- Proactively address stakeholder concerns and issues

2. Approaches and Methods of Engagement

The Local Authority will use different initiatives to foster inclusive participation, acknowledging the varied backgrounds of the residents. Efforts will also concentrate on promoting a balanced exchange between citizens and civic leaders, steering clear of a biased approach. Given that citizen engagement is an ongoing endeavor, the Local Authority will employ various channels and approaches to communicate effectively with all stakeholders involved. Engagement methods will therefore include:

A. Stakeholder Participation in Project prioritization

- The residents through their Ward Development Committees and other community leaders have identified projects that need to be implemented in all the sectors. The projects have been captured in the District Integrated Development Plan (IDP). The Local Authority will therefore, engage the citizens through the Traditional and religious leaders, Community – Based Organizations, and Ward Development Committees to prioritize projects which can be implemented this year.

B. Public consultation and keeping citizens informed through the budget cycle

- Budget hearing at District level will be conducted ahead of time to keep stakeholders informed of the performance of the 2025 budget and to obtain feedback regarding allocations to different programs/sub-programs. Key outputs, and selected projects.

C. Citizen Monitoring of Budget and Project Implementation

- The Local Authority will engage citizens in the monitoring of public projects under implementation. Sub-district structures such as the Ward Development Committees, Community Welfare Assistance Committees, etc. will be capacity built in basic project monitoring to ensure that they monitor selected projects on behalf of the intended beneficiaries.
- Improve reporting to citizens on the outputs of the budget implementation. This will be achieved through:

- ✓ Uploading quarterly budget performance reports on various social media platforms created to easy interaction between the Local Authority and the residents through the Ward Development Committees
- ✓ Publish regular updates and reports on the status of project implementation and budget performance
- ✓ Hold biannual community engagement meetings to provide feedback to the residents on project status and budget performance
- ✓ Incorporate key stakeholders in project monitoring

7. Conclusion

The development of this Citizen Engagement Strategy emphasizes the Local Authority's appreciation for inclusive development. This plan will help to address the challenges the Local Authority has been experiencing over the years in bringing different stakeholders on board regarding budgeting, project identification, implementation, and evaluation. The successful implementation of this plan will help to enhance transparency and accountability in the utilization of public resources, and we ensure the actualization of meaning decentralization as the opinions of more residents in the district will be incorporated in the budget formulation process, project identification, prioritization and execution. This plan also emphasizes the need to give regular feedback on budget performance, and progress of projects under implementation to the residents in order to keep them informed on the status of development in the District.

Finally, it is imperative to indicate that, the success of this plan depends on the stakeholder's willingness to join hands with the Local Authority by ensuring that they attend meetings whenever called upon, and provide either positive or negative feedback to the Local Authority with a view of improving budget performance and project implementation.
